

Dentons announces new promotions in Luxembourg.

Global law firm Dentons announced today the promotion of ten lawyers across all major practice groups in Luxembourg.

Frédéric Feyten, Luxembourg Managing Partner, commented, “These promotions reflect the strong organic growth in Dentons’ Luxembourg office. They also recognize the professionalism, high quality legal advice, and commitment to client service, which these talented lawyers have demonstrated.”

The following lawyers were promoted:

Christel Dumont has been appointed as Senior Counsel in the Luxembourg office of Dentons. She is a key practitioner in Real Estate and Restructuring, Insolvency and Bankruptcy. She joined Dentons in 2016.

Christine Ntumba has been appointed as Managing Counsel in the Tax practice in Luxembourg. She focuses on direct tax and has strong experience in tax compliance. She joined Dentons in 2010.

Pawel Hermelinski has been appointed as Managing Counsel in the Corporate and Private Equity practices. He joined Dentons in 2007.

Eduard Koster has been appointed as Managing Counsel in the Investment Funds practice in Luxembourg. He joined Dentons in 2016.

Jean-Dominique Morelli has been appointed as Managing Counsel in the Tax practice in Luxembourg. He focuses on international corporate taxation. He joined Dentons in 2016.

Andreea Antonescu has been appointed as Counsel in the Corporate and Private Equity practices in Luxembourg. She joined Dentons in 2012.

Ngoc-My Nguyen has been appointed as Counsel in the Tax practice in Luxembourg. She focuses on indirect tax planning and advises on VAT matters. She joined Dentons in 2012.

Romain Baroan has been promoted to Senior Associate in the Tax practice in Luxembourg. He focuses on indirect tax compliance. He joined Dentons in 2014.

Johann Parmantier has been promoted to Associate in the Corporate and Private Equity practices in Luxembourg. He joined Dentons in 2015.

Christophe Renaudin has been promoted to Associate in the Banking and Finance practice in Luxembourg. He joined Dentons in 2016.

