

BSP wins three awards at the 17th annual IFLR European Awards 2016

The independent Luxembourg law firm Bonn Steichen & Partners (BSP) was named « Luxembourg Law Firm of the Year » by the famous financial law publication IFLR (International Financial Law Review) at a ceremony held in London last Thursday. The firm received two more awards in the categories « High Yield Deal of the Year » and « Private Equity Deal of the Year » for its work on the ICBPI and WorldPay deals, both led by Private Equity partner Linda Harroch.

The IFLR awards celebrate every year the most innovative deals, teams, firms and in-house dealmakers.

Alain Steichen, Managing Partner, commented on these awards: We are very proud and honoured. As a firm, we strive to be creative in our approach, to be responsive and fast, to make a difference for our clients. We feel that these prestigious awards are an acknowledgement of the quality of our work. They further establish BSP as one of the leading law firms in Luxembourg. ».

BSP is also one of five firms shortlisted this year at the “Chambers Europe Awards” for Excellence 2016 in the category “Luxembourg Law Firm of the Year”.

