

New Managing Associate at Ogier's Luxembourg office

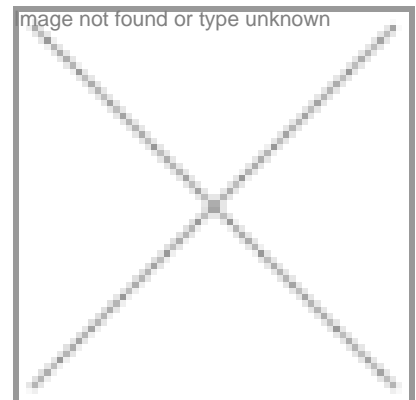

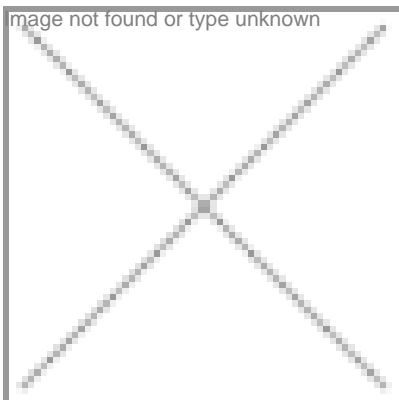

Marc Lenaers has been promoted to Managing Associate in Ogier's Luxembourg office.

Marc advises global clients and investment managers on a wide range of regulated and unregulated investment vehicles, including mutual funds, hedge funds, private equity, real estate and debt funds. He is in charge of setting up and restructuring Luxembourg investment funds tailored to the clients' needs. Prior to joining Ogier, Marc was Head of Legal Fund Engineering in a major bank and Senior Associate in a Luxembourg law firm, where he was in charge of the investment funds practice of the New York representative office.

Luxembourg practice partner Francois Pfister said: "Sincere congratulations to our new Managing Associate. Marc has been with Ogier since May 2015. He has demonstrated technical excellence and dedication to the problem solving of our funds clients. I am proud of his commitment to Ogier and look forward to his continued growth with us."

Also in the mid-year promotions, Guillaume Maurin has been promoted to Senior Associate. Guillaume works in the business and trust law group, where he advises on funds, mergers and acquisitions, private equity and restructuring and insolvency.

The announcement has been made as part of the firm's mid-year round of promotions – similar promotions have been announced simultaneously in Ogier's Jersey and Cayman offices.

About Ogier

Ogier provides advice on the British Virgin Islands, the Cayman Islands, Guernsey, Jersey and Luxembourg law through our network of offices that also includes Hong Kong, Shanghai and Tokyo. We are the only law firm to advise on these five laws.

We get straight to the point, managing complexity to get to the essentials. It is a collaborative approach. We listen actively, asking the right questions, focused on what really matters. We deliver targeted, pragmatic advice with absolute clarity.

We regularly win awards for the quality of our client service, our work and our people.
