Ms. Anissa Bali

On 16th August 2016, Anissa Bali joined the employment and social law department of Kleyr I Grasso as Senior Associate.

After graduating from the Faculty of Law, Economics and Administration in Metz, Anissa specialised in labour law. She advises her clients on individual dismissals, company work rules, working time, global mobility (international secondment, cross-border employment, immigration), pensions and litigation.

Anissa has over 10 years of experience, which she gained by working as a lawyer in a few law firms, first in the field of contract law, then in labour law. She also worked as a manager at a legal publisher in Luxembourg. She is regularly speaker at conferences and author of articles on labour law.

Anissa was also the president of the Conférence du Jeune Barreau de Luxembourg for the year 2014/2015.
