On 24 September, Bob Scharfe joined Luther's Luxembourg office to strengthen the firm's Banking, Finance and Capital Markets practice.

Bob Scharfe focuses on advising banks, multi-national corporations, and private equity firms on a wide range of banking and financing matters, capital markets, structured finance, securitisation and insolvency law aspects, and structuring private equity investments through Luxembourg. He also has solid experience in general corporate law.

Prior to joining Luther, Bob worked in the Banking, Finance and Capital Markets departments of Hogan Lovells and Elvinger Hoss Prussen in Luxembourg.

"I am delighted to join Luther and look forward to working with my new colleagues to strengthen our financial services offering. The dynamic and pragmatic Luxembourg financial centre remains highly attractive to investors. I believe that Luther, as a dynamic, client-focused and international law firm, is well positioned to guide and assist international and local players in these fast-changing times," says Bob Scharfe.

"We are pleased to welcome Bob," says Eric Sublon, Managing Partner at Luther in Luxembourg, "with whom we will further bolster our Banking, Finance and Capital Markets practice that will offer, hand in hand with the other practice areas of the firm, seamless and interdisciplinary services to our current and future clients."
